THE HIGHLIGHT TOUR PRESENTED BY

A professional guide takes you on a 60-minute tour through the stadium, to areas that are otherwise closed to the public. Visit the venue of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™, the 12th IAAF World Championships in Athletics Berlin 2009 and of the 6th FIFA Women's World Cup 2011™, the VIP areas, changing rooms and the underground warm-up training hall.

Enjoy the impressive perspective of this state of the art stadium, standing at the edge on the blue running track while your guide illustrates the history and architecture of the Olympiastadion Berlin.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

For participation details see special notice. No viewing or tours of the stadium on days with scheduled events. For security reasons and/or during event preparations certain areas (e.g. the players' changing rooms) or even the whole stadium may be closed at short notice and is therefore not open for viewing.

Cash and credit card payments are accepted at the ticket office. We regret that due to the architectural conditions the guided tours are only partially suitable for wheelchair users and people with walking difficulties. No dogs or bicycles are allowed within the stadium area. Please note that you cannot leave any luggage at the visitor centre. Current House Rules of the Olympiastadion Berlin and the Olympiapark Berlin apply.
